PHIS renowned breeder of trotters and I gentlemens' road horses, formerly the property of Capt. Wm. Currie, will make the present season at the stables of the undersigned in Mexico, Missouri.

DESCRIPTION AND PEDIGREE. Missouri Clay is a beautiful bay, and stands 15 hands and 3 inches high. He was sired by Strader's Cassius M. Clay, fr.; first dam by Valentine; second dam by Old Potomer; third dam by Dlomede. There is no better bred trotting horse in America. He has a remarkably kind disposition, long, graceful stride and speedy movement. His trot is clear and distinct, never backing to use weekly keeds, near or handages. movement. His trot is clear and distinct, never having to use weights, boots, pads or bandages of any kind to prevent cutting or to boister up weak points. He was driven a private trad on Edgewood track in 1878, after making a season, and without extra handling, rectting the second mile in 2:38. The Clay family of trotters are now the favorites with a large majority of the most noted breeders of the country.
